

goods

1. BAG OF TRICKS
Speed your movement through airport security with the Cocoon laptop case—with its GRID-IT! storage system—which allows computers to pass through X-ray machines unmolested. (Hint: Heeding the instructions of TSA representatives is another great time-saver!) / $70 / cocooninnovations.com

2. SIT AND STARE
Remember how drive-in movie theaters were kind of seedy? The Joybee mini-projector allows you to recall the joys of the movies alfresco without the stale popcorn. And it fits right into your bag. / $499 / benq.com

3. WIND IT UP
With its wind-up crank and tiny solar panels, this three-inch radio will come to the rescue when the battery dies on that fancy phone, GPS or MP3 player that was keeping you entertained and in touch. / $25 / usefulthings.com

4. PALM OF YOUR HAND
Now that the initial fervor for the Palm Pré has ebbed, the only smart phone currently capable of challenging the iPhone's reign can be had without waiting in line for a week. Of course, with crisp graphics and elegant apps, waiting would have been perfectly justified. / $199 / palm.com

5. A-PEELING
The potassium-filled, ultraportable banana comes in a protective case that peels right off when you're ready to eat. Perfect when you're on the go!

